Welcome by Carmen

Principle Report

- School is busy
- Kids are excited about salmon eggs, get to watch them grow and feed them (Stream to Sea program)
- Spirit days are a hit
- Hamper, donations and affordability outreach has been keeping Laura busy these last few weeks. Great way to support kids in ways that are needed.
- Tennis lesson were a hit
- Salmon paintings, were done years ago with students, and they are being hung in the gym. There will an assembly next week to share this
- School is wondering about a no juice rule with regards to juice boxes in lunches.
- Interactive TV, has been ordered for Amanda's class.

Treasure report

- attached
- Purdy's fundraiser $2,694.43
- Polar express revenue was around $300.00

PAC Report

- Purdy's successful fundraiser: large orders helped out
- Can try to run again in April
- Polar express was fun, wasn't a large money maker
- Munch a lunch will be launched in Feb, thank Hannah for all her work!
- Pancake day is Friday: good organization and many helper signed up
- Bake sale: under way
- West coast seeds fundraiser: Jan 20th to Feb 10th, PAC gets 40% of sales
- Tent: $990, + set up fee: it was decided to table this and maybe just buy a regular tent
- School jerseys: Laura will look into this- see what Bastion ordered
- Winter activities: momentum- they can't come to school but school may be able to go there, or do gym or rock. Thinking the money would be able to come from gaming account and run this a Monday and Wednesday in January.
- School bought snowshoes (2 class sets)
- Basketball will start after the break
- Food hampers (10 families) PAC will be able to help with purchasing hampers
- A/R update, difficult to deal with, customer support is terrible but getting up and running.

Carmen made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Sarah

Next meeting will be, Jan 4th 6:30 pm in Library at SAW, all welcome!
